67 Thornbridge Drive, Frecheville, Sheffield S12 4YG

Guide price* £90,000–£100,000

A well-proportioned three bedroom family semi-detached house needing updating in a popular residential area

Location

Frecheville is a sought after and popular residential area with families and young professionals. The house is conveniently located around three miles south east of Sheffield city centre and well placed for local shops, schools, amenities, supermarkets and transport links including bus, road and tram.

Description

A traditional three bedroomed bay windowed semi-detached home which now requires a scheme of modernisation and updating but offers the buyer plenty of potential. The property is vacant, has gas central heating, UPVC double glazing and side driveway. The house will appeal to residential family buyers looking for a project or the local builder/property renovator. There is also extension potential (subject to all the necessary planning permissions) and a good sized lawned garden to the rear. Early viewing advised.
