Garage, Ainsley Road, Crookes, Sheffield S10 1EU

Guide price* £5,000–£10,000

A vacant garage in a regraded residential area, close to the University and offering a variety of uses to suit the buyer

Location

Crookes is a well regarded and popular residential location towards the South West of Sheffield. The area attracts students, professionals and owner occupiers alike and is with easy reach of the University, Hospitals and a wealth of superb amenities including local shops and supermarkets, public transport links and access to the city, local schooling, pubs, restaurants and take-aways/cafes.

Description

A vacant detached garage with small driveway/access to the front in the regraded residential area of Crookes and close to the University. The garage may need some basic updating and upgrading but offers a variety of uses to the buyer including garaging/off road parking, storage or workshop. The garage has a secure up and over door and is situated in a great location on the corner of Ainsley Road and School Road. The area is predominantly on street communal parking with very little garaging or available workshops/stores.
