A two bedroom semi with large garden and double garage. Ideal refurbishment opportunity

Location

High Green is a northern suburb of Sheffield, located about 8 miles from the city centre and to the north of Chapeltown. The property is well placed for a host of local amenities including local schools, shops and parks. There are good leisure facilities in the area, a railway station in nearby Chapeltown around 1 mile away and the M1 motorway is within easy reach making this ideal for those looking to commute. The area is popular with young professionals, families and those parties looking to downsize.

Description

Set on a good sized plot of land with double garage is this 2 bedroom semi detached house now requiring a full scheme of refurbishment and remedial works. The property offers potential due to the size of the gardens and land and early viewing is suggested. The property has the benefit of gas central heating, UPVC double glazing, has no upward chain and backs onto the local park giving it a pleasant aspect.
